TIHOME SOFTWARE LIBRARY

ATER WRITTEN & THANSLATED SOFTWARE

I the programs listed in this catalogue have been submitted to TIHOME as part of our lituare exchange program. TIHOME does not claim any proprietary right to any of these programs and cannot be held responsible for their contents. Most of the programs are self explanatory and contain operating instructions. Several, however, do not and users may experience some difficulty at first.

We encourage anyone who finds a bug in these programs to submit a corrected version to us so that we can pass it along.

EXCHANGE POLICY

For the present, anyone who submits a working program in TI Basic or TI Extended Basic may choose in exchange, free of all cost, four programs from this catalogue. If you just want a program with nothing in exchange, please enclose £1.00 plus postage and packing. In either case your tape or floppy disc will be returned to you.
