

Front Range 99'er Computer Club

In May of 1983 a small group of TI-99/4A computer enthusiasts gathered together with the purpose of forming a TI User's Group here in Colorado Springs. The nucleus of the organization consisted of Gerald Riley, Cliff Swank, John Williams, Terry James, Linda Robison, and Steve and Glenda Marshall.

At a meeting in early June, Jerry Riley was selected as temporary chairperson and John, Terry, and Cliff volunteered to draft a plan of organization. Colorado Technical College donated free space for the club meetings and things were underway.

In late June another meeting was held. At this meeting the club was officially named the Front Range 99'er Computer Club and the constitution and by-laws were worked, re-worked, and finally accepted. Dues were set at $12.00 for an individual and $21.00 for a family. Membership was already growing rapidly. At the August meeting a nomination committee of Joe Nuvolini, Bryan Minnigerode, and Cliff Swank was established. The club's formal programs began at this meeting with Barbara Davis of Citadel Computers giving a demonstration of the TI CC 40. At the September meeting elections were held and the following officers were elected:

Jerry Riley, President
John Pearce, Vice President
Bonnie Snyder, Secretary
John Williams, Treasurer

A club library was established with Joe Nuvolini as librarian. There were now twenty-three members in the club. In October the club meeting place moved to Russell Junior High School. The November meeting brought the sad news that Texas Instruments was withdrawing from the home computer market. Undampened by this news the club continued to grow. A library committee was appointed. Procedures for the use of the library were established and the club newsletter, among the best, was formally named "The Front Ranger" at the suggestion of Al Miedrich. The Front Ranger alone is worth the club membership fee. We ended the year 1983 with forty-nine members and the club's library contained 160 programs.

At the first few meetings in 1984 a sub-board was established for the club on the Karavan BBS. Membership, Finance, and Program Committees were established as the club continued to expand its activities. Advertising began to appear in The Front Ranger in March attesting to the rapid growth of the club and the quality of the newsletter. By this time the club had a membership in excess of eighty. As 1984 progressed the club presented programs on various subjects at the monthly meetings. Courses were taught in programming and a sub assembly language group was organized. As the school year ended and the club approached its first anniversary, membership approached one hundred; not a bad showing.

When the school closed for the summer the club's meeting place changed several times finally settling at the Pioneer Plaza, its current location. Also the Karavan BBS closed as Kahlid Khalefah departed for Saudi Arabia. Over the summer months John Williams slowly gathered the equipment and software (TIBBS) necessary to establish the club's own bulletin board, the first in this state. The board went operational on September first and is available to all club members.

At the September meeting the following people were nominated and elected to the offices indicated:

John Pearce, President
Cliff Swank, Vice President
Bonnie Snyder, Secretary
Brian Minnigeroge, Treasurer

John outlined what appears to be an exciting program for the next year and I'm sure the members, which number in excess of 105 will reap great benefits from our club. Incidentally, our club library now contains 250 programs.

Club Services:

The Front Ranger- This is the club's newsletter and contains general items of interest to club members, comments from the President and Editor, a column called Programming Tips by Joe Nuvolini, reviews on new programs that have been added to the library as well as a list of the new programs. There are also notices of new products, both hardware and software, and some information extracted from the Denver Club's Starboard. Used hardware may also be advertised in the newsletter. The editor's name and number are in the latest issue if you have any further questions.

TIBBS- This is the club sponsored electronic bulletin board. It contains bulletins of interest to all, The Front Ranger, a listing of other local boards as well as other TIBBS systems around the country. Additionally one can leave and receive messages and advertise used hardware for sale. The board is free to all members. It's number is (303) 528-8971.

Program Library- The program Library is available to all club members and contains hundreds of programs. To obtain programs from the library you may contribute a public domain program and receive two program credits or you may just donate a dollar to the club for each program desired. You must provide your own disk or cassette to put the program on or you may have them sent by phone using your modem. For more information on the library call the librarian. His name and number are in the latest newsletter.
